Festive Afternoon Tea and Film

The Digital Lounge, Tyneside Cinema,
10 Pilgrim Street, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE1 6QG

Saturday, December 14, 2024, 3.00-6.00 pm

Our Festive Tea and Film over the last 10 years has proved one of our most popular events. As in previous years it will be held in The Tyneside Cinema in their splendid digital lounge. We will meet at 3pm for a chat, a glass (or two) of Prosecco followed by a delicious selection of sandwiches and cakes along with tea or coffee to enable us all to enter the Christmas spirit. After tea and a chance to chat, we will have a showing of a classic Christmas film. The film will start around 3.30 and there will be a chance afterwards to catch up again with friends. Children and other guests are very welcome.

The film this year by popular demand is Elf. This is a Christmas comedy film directed by John Favreau and written by David Berenbaum and was first shown in 2003.

The film follows the story of Buddy, a human orphan who crawls into Santa’s sack and is accidentally transported to the North Pole, where he is raised as an elf. As an adult, Buddy travels to New York City to find his real father, a workaholic publisher, and spread Christmas spirit.

The cost is £37.50 per person.
